George Washington Papers, Library of Congress 1744-1799, Series 4, General Correspondence Incidence on Staunton River, 1758

Transcribed by David Vardiman March 22, 2020

Bedford County

This day Timothy Dalton made talk before me one of his majestyes [Majesty's] Trustees of the peace for the said County: that yesterday there came to his house [illegible] Indians and quickly after came four white men in pursuit of the said Indians namely John Wheeler Rob^t Dalton Henry Wooddy William Hall from whom the Said Indians had taken horses and from and demanded the horses of the said Indians but they refused to let them have them on which the said Wheeler went to take one of the horses on which they shot at the said Wheeler three times but missed him on which the said Indians went away and the said white men in a small time joined with seven more white men and went in pursuit of the said Indians again and them Indians being joined by ten more Indians went over Staunton River a mile above the mouth of the Pigg River and threw off there packs and prepared them selves for battle Then William Vardeman [illegible] and some of the rest went up to them and told them they did not want to fight they only wanted there horses and did not want to hurt them on which the Indians told them they should fight for them and immediately the Indians fired on them there guns still the white men would not shoot at them then the Indians fired there guns more at them on that the Battle began in which William Hall was mortally wounded of which wound he died this morning: and likewise Richard Thompson was -Wounded in the shoulder and Buttocks; and that the white men like [illegible] killed and scalped these Indians on which the rest of the Indians ranawy and left the horses and the chief of the plunder they had taken and further this desponant saith not Certified under my hand this 9 day of May 1758 Rob.^t Baber